BROWNING'S
NEW LARGE AUTOMATIC ELECTRIC LAMP.

In this Lamp both carbons are moved by the electricity of the battery employed (without the aid of clockwork); the light remains uniform in height, and more steady in action than any of the expensive regulators previously introduced. Any number, from 20 to 50-quart Grove's Cells, or 2-quart Bunsen's, may be used with this Lamp. Price £8 8s.

JOHN BROWNING begs to announce that he has prepared, with peculiar care, a great number of Diagrams to illustrate recent discoveries in Spectrum Analysis and other branches of Observational Astronomy. These Slides can be had either plain or exquisitely coloured. Prices—3s. 6d. plain, and from 4s. 6d. to 10s. 6d. coloured. A list of subjects priced on application.

Photographs of Microscopic Objects for the Lantern, 3s. each. Lists on application.

ELECTRIC LAMPS, either separately or with Lantern Apparatus, for Public Exhibitions and Lectures, for showing Diagrams or Spectrum Experiments on Screen, or for Illuminating Halls or Buildings, on hire, either in town or country. Qualified Assistants sent if desired. Terms on application.
